Hi Team!

It's time to hire the Manta Rays Coaching staff for our 2016 season! The application for coaches and team lifeguards is now available and is attached to this e-mail.

We are hiring three different types of positions for the season: Lead Coach, Assistant Coach, and Team lifeguards. All applicants for open positions must have their completed Lifeguard training by the first day of practice, April, 18th 2016. (Hiring only returning CIT positions at this time) The requirements for each position are as follows:

Lead Coach: must have prior Manta Ray coaching experience, maintain a current Lifeguard and CPR certifications. Lead Coaches must attend 100% of all trainings and meetings.

Assistant Coach: must maintain a current Lifeguard and CPR certifications. Assistant Coaches must attend 100% of all trainings and meetings.

Team Lifeguards must maintain current Lifeguard and CPR certifications.

*Returning CIT's (Coaches in Training) must maintain a current CPR Certification and attend 90% of all trainings and meetings.

Applicants must complete the attached application (Circling the position applied for) and submit it to the office at Fairbrae by 9:00 pm on December 31, 2015. *Returning A.C.'s and C.I.T.'s must circle positions applied for and complete the Important Dates portion of the application in addition to updating any personal or contact information. Candidate interviews will begin in January for new applicants and Dec. 20 for returning applicants. The Manta Rays Board of Directors will approve candidates at the January Board meeting and notifications will follow the meeting.

For applicants who are not yet certified lifeguards, classes are available through CSC at Fremont High School. Enroll early, these classes do fill up. <http://www.calsportscenter.com/swim/sunnyvale.shtml> Other classes are available through the Red Cross. Search on-line under "Red Cross certification classes".

E-mail me if you have any questions. We're looking forward to a super 2016 swim season!
