August 15

Fairbrae Olympics 2-7pm

Once again we are celebrating Fairbrae's diverse nationalities with games and a potluck with various foods by families representing different countries from around the world. Please feel free to put together a favorite dish with label and country of origin. We will be serving food at 4pm. Please contact the office by August 6th to request your country's flag.

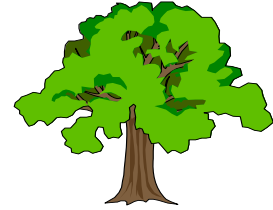

August 22

Fairbrae's Chili Cook-Off

We need people to participate in our first chili cook-off with chili served at 4pm. If you would like to participate please contact the office. This will be a low key fun time with a variety of Chili's. So, if you can cook up a can of Hormel with an ingredient or two then..... we want you.

Big Thank You's to:

Deana Blackburn and Carol Tadros for their wonderful expertise in choosing the beautiful tile for our outdoor showers.

And to Tricia Guerrieri for her delightfully tasty Chili which she cooked and dished out during our Spring-a-Board BBQ. Tricia will be spearheading our first Fairbrae Chili Cook-off on August 22nd. Please contact the office for more information on participation. This will be a fun event for all chefs from beginner to advanced.

And a special thank you to Mark Kinder for his hard work in getting things ready for the Spring-a-Board BBQ and our 4th of July BBQ.

Tennis information:

Our next tennis tournament will be our "Bud Wilson" Annual Labor Day Tournament. We will have mixed doubles and beginner ladies doubles. Please remember not to sign up more than two and a half days prior to your court time.
